March 14th

Dear Miho,

Last month, I went to band camp and stayed for one week. There was a different group for every instrument. The clarinet group was the biggest. There were fifteen flute players from different schools in my group. My friend Betty was in the trumpet group, and my brother was in the drum group.
Every morning, we had group lessons. Then, we all had lunch together. After lunch, there was a band practice for everyone at the camp. We practiced three different songs. After dinner every night, our teachers gave a concert, and we listened to their music. Do you have band camp in Japan?

Your friend,
Jenna
